

From Today's Gospel Readings: Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people... "Which of the two [sons] did the father's will?"

Reflection:

We believers must not just feel content in our religious practices. "I go to church every Sunday. I contribute to my parish and I obey the commandments." Being a Christian involves more than pious feelings and beautiful words. We are to reflect in our daily lives the words we express here at worship each week.
